LOWER PRICES TREND STILL IS UNDER WAY

Ohio Industries Face Future With Confidence It Is Said.

NO BREAD LINES

Optimistic View Taken On Conditions In State Now.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 8.—Industry in Ohio is facing and in fact in many cases has already faced the inevitable readjustment to "normalcy." The trend to lower price levels, begun some months ago is still under way and its effect is noticeable in unemployment, which is most marked in towns largely dependent on one industry, like Akron, and less marked in cities with diversified manufacturing interests such as Cleveland.

Business, however, faces the future with confidence, believing that an early and gradual return to peak production is in sight. Some Cleveland manufacturers predict this return about the opening of the new year, when, many say, a flood of orders on the new basis, will again send production soaring, while others believe that the resumption will be more gradual, and that 24 hour shifts in most industries are still far distant.

In Cleveland, which is the largest manufacturer of women's garments in America, business in this line is reported dull, but the leaders are optimistic of an early return to normal conditions.

According to figures compiled by the Chamber of Commerce the unemployed numbers about 20 per cent of the total working at the time of peak production here, but as there was a very acute shortage of labor then the problem of caring for those without jobs has not yet assumed serious proportions.

"There will be no bread lines in Ohio cities this winter," said an official of the chamber of commerce closely in touch with the situation. "There is normally a large floating labor element, even at times of greatest production. While to this has been added a considerable number of the more stable element, there is nothing to fear."

Many leaders in business express the view that the result of the election, with the assurance of an increase in tariff rates will be of immediate benefit to business. Others state that the settlement of the question of peace, which has long been hanging fire, will be potent factor in rebuilding fires in industrial plants and permitting the rearing anew of America's business structure upon a firmer basis than ever before.

Lower prices are everywhere assured to be inevitable, but manufacturers generally welcome a reduction in the swollen rates which have been charged.

With a widening labor market the view is expressed that greater efficiency may obviate any necessity for a lowering in the wages now paid.

NEW TARIFF WILL BE MOST DRASIC IN U. S. HISTORY

Republican Officials Make Assertion Of Coming Measure.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The tariff bill to be passed by the incoming Republican Congress promises to be the most drastic protective measure that has appeared upon the Federal statute books, according to Republican Senators and Representatives now in Washington. It will be ready for signature by President Warren G. Harding early next summer, it was stated.

Representative Joseph W. Fordney, chairman of House Ways and Means Committee already is at work upon the schedules and soon will have the assistance of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah.

The bill, it was learned, will include every sort of commodity in which America is in competition with foreign countries where labor and raw materials are cheaper, but will be aimed especially at protection of farm products, manufactured goods, steel and iron products.

The measure, it is understood, will be contested bitterly by Democratic members of congress, as one designed to tax the poor while conferring favors upon special interests.

Summarizing the situation which in his opinion makes a high tariff imperative, one Senator said:

"Producers of all sorts of farm products, particularly wool, are facing bankruptcy and must be protected."

"Europe, with its cheap labor again is resuming her old role of strong competitor for the world markets."

"Factories are shutting down throughout the United States because American employers cannot produce certain classes of goods in competition with various countries abroad."

PECK'S BAD BOY AS HE LOOKS TODAY

Probably no book of a generation ago was more generally read and laughed over than "Peck's Bad Boy." Today the once famous work has been practically forgotten and but few people know that the hero of the story is still alive. In this photo-

MEN WHO KILLED BANK MESSENGER NOW UNDER ARREST

Two Robbers Confess To Crime Of Murder In the East.

Mr. Holly, N. J., Nov. 8.—Frank J. James and Raymond W. Schuck, both of Camden, confessed according to the police that they killed David S. Paul, the Camden bank runner, robbed him of $40,000 in cash and buried the body in the Jersey pine near Tabernacle. The money was buried in Evergreen Cemetery in Camden and most of it has been recovered, the officials stated.

The alleged confessions were given in signed statements at the Burlington County jail here, where both men are prisoners. Although neither of the men was aware of the other had confessed, their stories were almost identical on important points.

Details of the confessions were not made public but Ellis Parker, Burlington County detective said, the two men had "carefully planned" but "clumsily carried out the job." Robbery was the motive he asserted, and no one but James and Schuck was implicated.

Paul was slain in Camden, according to Schuck's confession as given out by Parker, on Oct. 5. The detective did not say who did the actual killing.

NO DECLINE SEEN IN NATION'S TAX BILL AS PLANNED

Recommendations Are Laid Before Secretary Of Treasury for O. K.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The nation will face a continuation of the annual tax bill of $4,000,000,000 if Congress adopts recommendations drafted by Treasury officials and which, it was understood last night, have been laid before Secretary Houston for approval.

Mr. Houston, it was stated, probably will include such recommendations in the form of an analysis of the Government's financial condition to his forthcoming annual report to Congress. The analysis will show, it was said, that a three-year program for tax revision is required in order to meet maturing Government obligations and cover current Federal expenses.

Approximately $8,000,000,000 in Victory notes, war savings securities and Treasury certificates of indebtedness will be due for payment within the next three years, Treasury figures show.

Retention of the present aggregate level of taxes, of maintenance of the national debt, and of the budget deficit will be unavoidable on the face of average expenditures estimated for the period.

GOVERNMENT WILL SEEK CONTINUANCE OF MINERS' CASE

One Hundred and Twenty Five Movies and Operators Involved.

Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—The government will seek continuance of the case against 125 bituminous coal miners and operators charged with conspiracy to violate the Lever Act by restricting the production and distribution of fuel, it was announced by Special Assistant U. S. District Attorney Slack today shortly before the trial was scheduled to begin in federal court. Attorney General Palmer had previously stated in Washington that the government was ready to proceed with the prosecution.

Action toward concurrence, it is said will precipitate the investigation by Judge Anderson of the alleged suppression of evidence in the coal case by the attorney general.

COX FACTION HAS LEAD IN DISPUTE OVER PARTY TIES

Insurgents Are Headed By William Jennings Bryan.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The fight for the control of the Democratic national party organization has developed into a "knock-down and drag-out affair" between Governor James M. Cox and his assistants and the insurgents headed by William Jennings Bryan, it was learned here. Up to last night the Cox faction by making concessions to some insurgents holding a blacklist over the heads of others, appear to be getting a shade the better of it.

One of the most prominent agitators for a new deal saw the error of his ways only a few hours before the blacklist was made public, Saturday night. His name promptly appeared on the "white list" issued by the Democratic National Committee.

Judson Harmon, former Democratic Governor of Ohio, who reached Washington last night for the argument of a case before the United States Supreme Court, predicted that the next campaign will see a "united party back of the same broad principles which have made the Democrats a factor in the past."

ENDS LIFE IN CREEK.

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 8.—John Watson, 62 years old, who recently moved to Cincinnati from Scott County, ended his life here by jumping into Elkhorn Creek. His body was discovered. A son, Ford Watson, of Scott county, druggist, survives.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 8.—Gonzalo Montt has been appointed secretary of the Chilean embassy at Washington it was announced.

IRISH RIOTING TAKES TOLL OVER SUNDAY

Tense Situation Prevails In Belfast, and Londonderry—Troops Patrol Streets To Prevent Further Fighting—Many Are Wounded.

Belfast, Nov. 8.—A tense situation prevailed in Belfast and Londonderry today and troops patrolled the streets to prevent further fighting following the outbreaks on Sunday when many persons were wounded. Five policemen were wounded at Londonderry and two of them are reported to be dying. There was considerable shooting during the rioting in the Crumlin road district of Belfast. Policemen and soldiers charged the mobs with riot sticks. A bowie knife and an automatic pistol were found upon one of the ring leaders, who was arrested. Finally armored cars were called out and dispersed the crowds.

The disorders at Londonderry followed the shooting of two policemen. Orangemen began parading the streets burning the property of Sinn Feiners. Fire engines escorted by troops, were compelled by rifle volleys to turn back, while attempting to respond to an alarm from Foyle street.

MARSHAL FOCH ATTACKS PEACE TREATY TERMS

Generalissimo Of Allied Forces Says Versailles Treaty, 'Weak Peace'

RELATIONS STRAINED

Clemenceau and Foch Not In Accord It Is Revealed.

Paris, Nov. 8.—Marshal Foch, generalissimo of the allied forces, in a sensational interview with the Matin today denounced the Versailles treaty as a "weak peace."

Marshal Foch revealed that the relations between former Premier Clemenceau and himself were badly strained during the dark days of the war. The generalissimo said he was rebuked by ex-Premier Clemenceau when he offered suggestions.

"France has failed to gain the assurances which our victory justified," Marshal Foch was quoted as saying.

"Personally I was in favor of the demanded military occupation of the Rhine until the peace treaty was executed and I was supported by M. Poincaré (former president.) I made protest when the treaty was finally drafted, but received no answer."

"When I demanded that M. Clemenceau reply, he said he had conversed on the subject with President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George and had no reply to make."

M. Clemenceau showed hardly any appreciation of my work. At the war council in London when I protested against a decision of Field Marshal Earl Haig (the commander in chief of the British army) I was vigorously told by M. Clemenceau to keep quiet. The premier (M. Clemenceau) declared he was the spokesman for the French government and had no reply to make.

M. Clemenceau even opposed making me generalissimo of the allied armies until Field Marshal Haig insisted."

WALK EIGHT MILES TO CONFESS GUILT

Canton, O., Nov. 8.—Tommy Grabowski and Mike Dage, twelve year old lads walked eight miles from Massillon, this morning, to the sheriff's office, for advice. The boys were out target shooting near their homes yesterday afternoon but were poor marksmen. Then a chicken appeared in the road a hundred yards away. "Watch me make him jump," said Tommy. He did a Daniel Boone this time, and the chicken died. The boys feared arrest, so they came over to Canton to take it up with the sheriff. They were told to pay the owner of the fowl and not to make live stock a target any more. Then they trudged back to Massillon, discussing ways and means to raise the money to pay for their demonstration of marksmanship.

POLICE WORKING ON MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF COLUMBUS BOY

High School Pupil Found Dead Near His Home.

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Police are trying to solve the mystery surrounding the death of 18-year-old Roger Kroetinger. The lad's lifeless body was found in a shallow run near his home, his face buried in mud under about 6 inches of water.

The only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Kroetinger, of this city, Roger had been under the care of specialists, having had to quit his classes at North High School because of ill health. Daily hikes constituted part of the treatment designed to restore him to health. He was on one of these hikes when he met his death. One theory advanced is that in trying to leap over the run he became dizzy.

MCADOO DECLARES CO-OPERATION NOW NECESSARY TO U. S.

Problem Must Be Met Squarely By United Country.

New York, Nov. 8.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, in a statement last night, commenting on the result of the national election, declared that "what the country needs is subsidence of the passions and hatreds engendered by the war and the partisan political appeals that have followed."

"It is of no value to try to explain the causes of the Democratic defeat Nov. 2," the statement said. "The overwhelming Republican victory has given that party the presidency and both houses of Congress. After March 4 next it will have entire responsibility for the policies and administration of the government and cannot evade or excuse its failure to perform the promises it has made to the country. Under our political system it is always better to have one party control at Washington than to have divided authority."

"What the country imperatively needs now is subsidence of the passions and hatreds engendered by the war and the partisan political appeals that have followed. The country is sick of political slanders and controversies. It wants domestic as well as international peace and it wants restoration of that fine spirit of co-operation which made America invincible in war. We face domestic and international problems of great gravity."

"The Democratic party has suffered a severe but not a disastrous defeat. It is far from dead; it is not even seriously wounded. Throughout our history overwhelming reverses have been followed by extraordinary political recoveries. So long as the Democratic party is true to its mission of service to the common people it will live. What we must do now is to build up and strengthen the party organization, not in the interests of any individual or group or faction, but for the cause of Democracy itself, and above all for service of country."

TREATY SURE TO BE REJECTED AT SHORT SESSION OF CONGRESS

Republican Leaders Decided On Action To Be Taken.

Washington, November 8.—Republican leaders of all beliefs, ranging from open advocates of a League of Nations to the irreconcilables led by Senators William E. Borah and Hiram W. Johnson, are agreed that the treaty of Versailles shall be rejected as soon as it is resubmitted to the short session of Congress by President Wilson, and peace declared with the Central Powers by a resolution, it was learned from an official source.

President-Elect Warren G. Harding, it is stated, already has agreed to such a program.

Several plans for an association of nations will be submitted to Congress immediately. Among them is one by Senator Joseph I. France, who describes it in the following article:

"The first duty of the Republican Congress will be to end the state of war with Germany, and then to take steps in the direction of international understandings which will mean true reconciliation and national reconstruction."

HOST TO HARDING

No longer a party nominee, but President-elect of the United States, Warren G. Harding has turned his thoughts to rest and has left on a vacation that will last until the middle of December. He is now in Texas as the guest of F. E. Scobey, who was a leader of the Harding pre-convention campaign. Mr. Scobey has been the Senator's personal friend for many years and will be companion in his vacation and fishing expeditions.

The journey of the president-elect through the middle and southwest has been a continuous ovation. Throngs have gathered at every cross roads and city station and although he is on vacation the senator has responded to their welcome, leaving his breakfast table and staying out of his bed to greet those who have come to pay their respects.

Despite the fact that he left Marlow with no intention of making any speeches, he has delivered at least a dozen. Press dispatches from Paris, which represented semi-officially that France is willing to cooperate with the United States of America, were called to the attention of the president elect, but he refused to comment. He is extremely cautious to avoid anything which may in any manner construed as anticipation of his taking office or interference with the present administration.

Shortly after the Paris dispatches were available in the special train, the senator made a brief speech at Marshall, Texas, in which he declared "our moral obligations will always stand out and America does not need any meeting of foreign powers to tell us what our moral obligations are. We want to meet with them, counsel with them, know their thoughts and give them ours, but we want to give them the freedom of America—I wouldn't want our country aloof from the other people's but I want her to be strong, fortunate and wholly free to play her part in dealing with the rest of the world."

While there was no official statement it was understood on the special train that the senator will seek an American made league taking some features from the present league as a basis for a world fraternity and that he will follow out the suggestion made in his speech of August 28, advocating an international association of nations for peace."

Reports that Senator Harding might meet Mexican leaders on the border have been scuttled by official announcement that no such meeting is contemplated.

Senator Harding today was planning to divide his pleasures between golf and tarpon fishing with half a day devoted to each sport.

Although there is excellent hunting at Point Isabel the president-elect does not plan for any hunting himself as he is not a lover of the sport. Despite the fact that he has been as busy during his trip as he was during many campaign tours, both the senator and Mrs. Harding were elated today over their trip and their opportunity to meet the people and neither of them passed up the chance to meet any one. At one stop Senator Harding held a group of friends waiting while he pushed his way through the throng to get a pencil from a crippe and talk to him.

MEXICO WOULD STOP OUTFLOW OF LABORERS

Mexico City, Nov. 8.—Mexico is trying hard to stem the rush of Mexican laborers to the United States. High wages prevailing across the border are luring thousands from this country. Mexican newspapers have begun a propaganda campaign warning Mexican workers to remain at home where their services are needed to rehabilitate the country.

TRAPPED BY FLAMES WOMAN LEAPS FROM WINDOW; IS HURT

Trapped by flames in the second floor of her home, Mrs. John Funk, Hyer avenue, Snyder Terrace addition Springfield, leaped from a window at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning, sustaining internal injuries, while her husband rescued three children who were asleep in an up-stairs room. The blaze destroyed the house with a property loss of $3,000.

Mrs. Funk was taken to the Springfield city hospital where her condition is said to be serious. One of the children was burned when the father carried them from their room past the flame swept stairway of the house. The fire was caused by an overheated kitchen stove.

BROKEN BONE IS RESULT OF ACCIDENT

Robert Dymond, who sustained a fracture of one bone in his right arm when he was struck and knocked down by an H. E. Schmidt & Co. delivery truck driven by William Mowen at Detroit and Leaman street last week, is improving rapidly.

It was at first thought that Mr. Dymond was not seriously hurt but his arm pained him so badly that he called in a physician who set the broken bone. In the accident the grocery truck, after striking Mr. Dymond, ran into the Reo touring car owned and driven by J. D. Adams of East Second street, and occupied by Mr. Adams and Isaac Evans. Neither were injured but the machine was badly damaged.

CALL OFF GAME ACCOUNT OF RAIN

Because of the rain that fell in the morning the management of the Xenia Maroons called off the game with the Dayton Oakwoods scheduled to be played at Reserve Park Sunday afternoon.

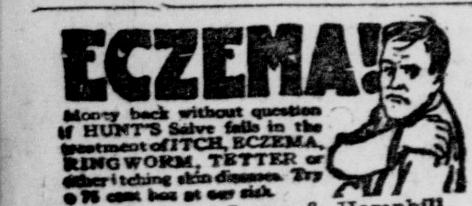

The rain fell heaviest about noon, and afterwards stopped so the day would have been almost ideal for the game had it not already been called off. Fans were disappointed because of the cancellation which was the first of the season made necessary due to weather conditions.

This will give the Maroons a two weeks lay-off and they will have plenty of both rest and practice before meeting the fast Milford team here next Sunday.

WILL TAKE ACTION TO CLOSE THEATERS

Action to prevent motion picture theaters in Springfield from operating on Sunday will be taken by the Clark county ministerial association at the meeting to be held next Monday, it is thought.

The plan of closing theaters was discussed at a meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday when it was suggested

PLAY ON OPPPOSING TEAMS SATURDAY

Richard Sayre and Germaine Hall both Xenia boys at the University of Dayton, played against each other when the college freshman team defeated the Ringabooos, a team from the academic department Saturday.

Sayre, a product of last year's High School team, played at tackle for the Freshmen, the position he is filling at times on the Varsity squad. Hall, who played with Central High two years ago, played at end for his team and made the team's only touch down, when he intercepted a forward pass and ran 50 yards for a touch down.

Raymond Snodgrass, of this city who is on the Denison University squad, broke into the game at left end for the Baptists Saturday against Ohio University. The local lad, who played end on the Central High team

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "joky" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

DRECO HER SON'S HEALTH

Confined to bed three months, says she never expected to see him alive again. Dreco overcame stomach trouble, weak kidneys, and constipation.

The remarkable recovery from a spell of sickness keeping him in bed three months, is told by the mother of Mr. J. R. Lony, a well known farmer of Zanesfield, near Bellfontaine, Ohio.

"When I left my son one day I felt I'd never see him alive again states the fond mother. "His family were by his bedside day and night. He was living on the lightest food for his stomach could not digest any other kind. His case was said to be liver and stomach trouble. He was certainly a sick boy. Bowels hard to move, liver lazy and getting weaker every day.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Xenia at Sohn's drug store.

RABBIT SEASON OPENS NOVEMBER 15

Greene County nimrods, are oiling their shotguns, searching for the hunting coats and preparing for an attack on the Greene County rabbits, when the open season on the cotton tails comes in November 15, next Monday.

On the same day the open season for ruffed grouse, cock pheasant and Hungarian partridge starts, and will continue ten days until November 25. The rabbit season however will last until January 1, with hunting permissible on the first day of the year.

Ten rabbits a day or in possession is the bag limit in Ohio, while the bag limit on the birds is three ruffed grouse, three cock pheasants and six Hungarian partridge. The sale of rabbits is permitted in this state but the birds taken can neither be sold or exported.

Hunters are advised to wait until the first day of the open season before starting after the rabbits as game wardens are active against the law breakers who hunt too soon.

Christian Craver, aged 81, died Monday morning at 4:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Hoag, 111 Chestnut street. He had been ill for about a year, suffering from heart trouble and complications.

Mr. Craver was born March 2, 1839 in Prussia. He had spent most of his life at Stone Lick, Ohio, coming to this city three weeks ago to spend the winter with his daughter. Besides Mrs. Hoag, he is survived by the following children, Mrs. Michael-Church village of Owensville, Ohio, and John George and Charles Craver of Fairmont county.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at St. Philomena Church, Stone Lick and burial will be made in the cemetery there.

MURDERER OF DAYTON PAWBROKER ON TRIAL

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Hilliard and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hilliard and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Leahey, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hilliard and two children.

JUDGED AT METHODIST PARSONAGE SATURDAY.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Mildred Farquhar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McDonald of the Stone road to Melvin McDonald took place at the parsonage of the First M. E. Church, Saturday morning. Only immediate relatives of the couple were in attendance. The bride was attired in a suit of dark blue with hat to match. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will make their home with Mr. McDonald's parents on R. R. 9, Xenia, for the present. Mr. McDonald is the son of James McDonald prominent farmer of this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Curtis, of the Lebron Apartments, entertained a party of friends at dinner, Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Mitchell, Miss Florence Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Morton and son Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cisco, of Columbus.

BOY BURGLAR DROPS 50 FEET; NEAR DEATH

Dayton, O., Nov. 8.—Dayton's "sky-light burglary jobs" have been solved, police say, by the arrest of 15-year-old Harry Cleenan, now lying near death at a local hospital, as a result of injuries suffered when in an effort to escape he leaped down a 50 foot air shaft at the U. B. building last night. He confessed to robbing several downtown stores. In his fall, which came when a night watchman shot at him, the boy broke his left leg.

CONTRACTOR ENTERS PLEA OF NOT GUILTY

New York, Nov. 8.—A plea of not guilty was entered today by George S. Backer, millionaire building contractor, to the charge of perjury carried in the indictment by the additional grand jury investigating the building graft scandal.

SIMPLICITY

Most great writers have preached the virtue of simplicity. If you read the Bible at all, you will remember many wise words there on this subject.

Yet do we really recognize the value of being simple? I have not the space to talk about the greater aspects of this. I only want to mention one small part of it—the value of simplicity in dress, in personal appearance.

This is the first thing to remember—the fuzzy, over dressed, turbaned jewel laden, tightly marcelled woman is never beautiful. She may have face and figure of Grecian proportion—but still when she gets away from simplicity, she becomes ugly.

As a matter of fact, we have come to feel that too many clothes are only a disguise for a bad figure, that too much rouge and powder covers a hideous complexion, that elaborately dressed hair is achieved by false switches and is done so to draw attention away from the poor quality of the hair itself.

Of course, when I preach simplicity I mean an artistic simplicity, as opposed to ordinary plainness. This is a distinction you will see more clearly if you study in detail the women of your acquaintance. An artist would tell you that it is a matter of lines and of color—that the home made calico dress stands as good a chance of having lovely lines and of making you attractive as the imported Paris robe does—if it is made with an eye to becoming simplicity.

Meantime, while you study out the subject for yourself—discard all the ugly, unnecessary details such as puffs, rats, surplus jewelry and out-of-place trimmings.

H. G. L.—The vase for penciled brows has run itself out, so you will foolish to start with it now. Most of the people who adopted it, keep it up at present because they dislike the ordeal of having the brows grow out naturally as there will be a period of irregular growth which will make the person conspicuous. If your brows are too full, brush them into as fine a line as possible.

A Delighted Reader.—The cream that you mention is not the best, as it has a tendency to shrivel the skin.

There are plenty of fine creams from which to choose, and if you are in doubt and care to make your own, I shall be pleased to send an excellent formula.

You could build out your hair by arranging it in the back over any of the wire forms that come for the purpose. They are obtainable at any department store, usually at the notion counter. There are various sizes and shapes, and in your case, the larger ones will make the proper foundation on which you may easily arrange the hair into a coil or a large coil or a large bun.

Massage the neck and arms with a building cream but it is evident that you need to build up all over by taking more nourishment and fattening foods.

NOTWITHSTANDING THE "avalanche" GOVERNOR COX THINKS DEMOCRACY ESSENTIAL TO THE COUNTRY.

At Columbus, on Friday, Governor Cox issued a statement on the election, the first he had made after the avalanche. He said:

"Talk of a new party is absurd. As well might discuss the destruction of human emotions. As essential as it has been to the welfare of the country in the past, the creed of Democracy is needed more now than ever, because recent events have made it distinctly the American party. In spirit I am as proud as when the fight was started. I would not retrace a step nor yield a jot in principle. It was a privilege to make the contest for the right in the face of overwhelming odds. There is a distinct difference between defeat and surrender."

Not the words: "Essential to the welfare of the country in the past." When and where, Governor, did this occur—that Democracy was essential to the welfare of the country?

It surely wasn't when the whole democratic party of the Solid South went into rebellion and fought for four years to dissolve the union.

It surely wasn't when the democratic party of Indiana formed itself into bands of the "Knights of the Golden Circle" and met nightly in secret conclave to aid secession.

It surely wasn't when the democratic party of Ohio ran that arch-traitor C. S. Vallandingham for Governor, who afterwards had to be deported because of his villainous disloyalty to the country.

It surely wasn't, Governor, when that sterling democrat, Wilkes Booth, shot to death Abraham Lincoln, the greatest man since Washington, the man who was trying to save the country from democracy.

And says Governor Cox, "there is a difference between defeat and surrender." Is there? Grant didn't think so at Appomattox. He thought they were the same thing.

But, of course, some people may not know when they are licked. You are the Governor of a great State that has so re-pudiated democracy as to not send a single democrat to Congress.

Senator Atlee Pomerene, by whose grace we have our good pastmaster, will surely feel lonesome as the sole democratic representative of Ohio in Congress.

By the way, giving us our postmaster was no small job, considering there were so few democrats in Xenia, he had to go to Springfield for him.

But brother Pomerene will be relieved of that onerous job after March 4th, and Dr. Fess will attend to it, by giving us a good republican to handle the mails. Don't all speak at once.

And we will give Mr. Pomerene a rest too after 1923; and how would it do to replace him by a sterling Greene county republican by the name of Simeon D. Fess, the most popular Ohio Congressman? That would suit us.

We have great respect for you, Governor. You did your self credit in the campaign by upholding a "lost cause" to the best of your ability. You did yourself credit by sending a letter of congratulation to Senator Harding, a thing President Wilson had not the grace to do. You showed yourself a man of nerve at one time by making the Cincinnati saloonists obey the law on Sunday. We have always honored your fight against the "tax spenders" in your valiant efforts for the Smith one per cent law. There are worse fellows than you.

WHY PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING SHOULD HAVE A CABINET OF STALWART MEN.

During the coming new national administration the people will expect in its aid the services of the best minds in the country. We do not believe that there is any man in America whose mentality is so highly developed, whose intellectual and executive powers are of such a broad and comprehensive scope, that he can without aid, initiate and carry into effect a policy that will solve our problems and solve them correctly in the best interests of the nation at large.

Hence there rests upon Senator Harding the solemn obligation to choose from among America's citizens the best and brightest minds on this continent, to aid him in his task. Mr. Wilson's administration, now drawing to a stormy close, has been criticised as a one-man administration. The idea is firmly implanted in the minds of our citizens, that we want no more such. We are solemnly pledged to the principle that the Government of the United States is greater than any one man; that no single individual, however gifted, far-seeing and wise, can, independent of advice, direct the policies of this nation. We need the Cabinet, the Senate and the House of Representatives, in addition to the Executive himself, to perform their full and complete legislative, administrative and executive functions as provided by the Constitution.

WAYNE WHEELER IS WELL PLEASED AND SO ARE A MILLION OTHER PEOPLE.

Pointing out that of the 435 members of Congress more than 225 who had voted for the Volstead act were re-elected, Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel and legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, says "Tuesday's election spells 'defeat' for the beer and wine amendment in the Sixty-seventh Congress.

"In addition, he said, there were many new members elected and former members who did not vote who have gone on record in this campaign against raising the alcoholic content of permitted beverages or otherwise weakening the national prohibition code.

"The issue was made more difficult in some districts by candidates announcing themselves 'dry' in opposition to present 'dry' members of Congress, and they received the 'wet' vote to punish members of Congress who had gone on record against them," Mr. Wheeler said.

"One of the bitterest fights was in Mr. Volstead's district in Minnesota. He had a handicap of 6300 to overcome, and his opponent declared he was as 'dry' as Mr. Volstead. The fight was won by convincing the voters that Volstead's defeat would be heralded as a 'wet' victory, and it would give the 'wets' a 'wet' chairman of the judiciary committee.

"The election of Milton Shreve in the Twenty-fifth district of Pennsylvania was also a spectacular fight. A bipartisan liquor organization in both the Republican and Democratic primaries and defeated Mr. Shreve for renomination. He was elected on the independent ticket."

MOTORAIDS

How do you apply tire chains, is the problem before many new motor car owners this fall. Bumping along in ice and dirt ruts and pounding against pavements with chain equipped tires is a necessity from a safety and traction standpoint but one can quickly ruin a good set of tires by improper application of the chains. Chains should be left loose enough so that everytime the wheel turns the cross chains will not strike the same spot on the tire. The rigid tight adjustment tears chunks of rubber from the tire tread. The loose application distributes the chains blows over the section of the tire and does not confine them to one spot. It is a question of wearing out either your tires or the steel of your chains. Tight chains destroy the tires.

Gas Shortage Predicted -Get a CaloriC and Keep Warm

The natural gas supply of the country is dwindling. The shortage was keenly felt in many localities last winter—and gas companies have warned consumers that it will likely become serious this winter. Can you afford to take chances of having no heat when cold weather comes?

The CaloriC Pipeless Furnace is the solution of the problem. It can be installed in a day without plumbing or alteration of your home—does not interfere with your present heating system—and requires very little space in the basement. It has no pipes, but supplies heat for your entire home through one register. Saves 1-3 to 1-2 your fuel.

We will install a CaloriC in your home on the fair and square guarantee of your satisfaction or money back. Visit our store and see the CaloriC and let us explain its patented features which cannot be had in any imitation pipeless furnaces.

THE LOSERS.

On the bosom of Salt River sluggish their vessel floats, and their dismal dirges quiver on the air, in sobbing notes; we can hear their weary chorus: "Gloomy skies are bending o'er us, and there is no hope before us, for we've lost our William Goats." Ah, there is no joyous ditty, from the passengers or crew, and my eyes are wet with pity, as a lawn is wet with dew; it is sad to see them sailing, it is tough to hear them walling, as they lean against the railing for a last and longing view. Up Salt River's weeping waters they must sail for years, perhaps, just because some tinhorn rotters voted for the other chaps; they must sail while autumn mellows, they must sail while winter bellows, knowing that the other fellows gather in the public snaps. Oh, it is a ship of sorrow that proceeds upon its way, and the beefing done tomorrow will be louder than today; for each landmark will remind them of the snaps they leave behind them and the scalding tears will blind them till they hit the starboard hay. But the ship will be returning with its passengers and crew, and their bosoms will be burning with ambitions fine and new; and for office they'll be running, and for votes they will be gunning, on a platform simply stunning, and a nice fresh rag to chew.

LOCALS OUTWEIGHED RECEIVE TROUNCING

St. Brigid's Meteors were outweighed and found themselves pitted against older and bigger players when they stacked up against the Dayton Cardinals at Highland Park, Dayton Sunday afternoon and they were defeated by the score of 25-0.

The kid team booked the game under the supposition that they would meet players of their own size and age, but there was evidently a misunderstanding as the Dayton team was out of the class of the locals in this respect.

Playing their first game on a foreign field is also thought to have created a little nervousness among local players and contributed to their defeat.

OHIO BELL COMPANY FILES PETITION FOR BUYING OF PROPERTY

Telephone Company. As far as the subscribers and the public are concerned the only change will be in the name of the company.

EAST END NEWS

Pursuant to the plan recently announced, the name of The Cleveland Telephone Company has been changed to The Ohio Bell Telephone Company, and a petition was filed Saturday, November 6th with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio covering the purchase by The Ohio Bell Company of the property of the Central Union Telephone Company located in the state of Ohio. The two companies are Associate Companies of the Bell System and their properties are so located that they are not in competition with each other.

The Central Union Telephone Company is an Illinois corporation and for many years has operated a system of exchanges and toll lines in the state of Ohio and other states, the property of the company in Ohio comprising the Bell exchanges in the cities of Columbus, Toledo, Dayton, Akron, Youngstown, Canton, Springfield, Zanesville and a large number of other cities, and the toll lines connecting them. Its toll lines also connect with all important points operated by local independent companies throughout the state.

"By this sale, the properties of the two companies in Ohio will be owned and operated by a single corporation organized under the laws of this state, whose entire property will be completely under the jurisdiction of the Ohio Public Utilities Commission. The carrying out of this plan will promote simplicity and economy of operation and will be for the best interests of the subscribers of both companies and the public," declares the management.

No changes in rates for telephone service or local management are involved in this proposed sale, which will merely transfer the ownership of the property from the Central Union Telephone Company to The Ohio Bell

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Five years ago I was married to a man who had enlisted with the Canadian army. We were married before he left for overseas. He had not been in France long before he was killed. Then a few months later a little baby girl was born to me.

My parents have been dead for several years. At the time of my marriage I was living with a married sister. I remained with her after marriage, too, and worked as long as I could. When I had to give up my position I was dependent upon the small pension which I received because of my husband's death. After the baby was six months old I went to work again and my sister took care of her.

Now baby is four years old and of course she gets into mischief as all normal children do. Sister has children of her own and they do things which my baby is always blamed for. It nearly breaks my heart to see my little girl whipped and punished daily while my sister's children are not crossed in any way.

I have had an offer to go as housekeeper in a home where the mistress is an invalid. She has no children of her own and she says she would like to have my child in the home. The pay will be small because she is not a woman of means. I feel, though, that my little girl and I can be happier there.

After my day's work at the office I help in my sister's home. Every night I assist with the dinner and then do all the dishes. Besides this I do the ironing in the evenings. Sister says that I am ungrateful for all she has done for me and that I have no right to leave her now.

What do you think, Mrs. Thompson? UNHAPPY MOTHER.

The way opened to you seems to be a reward for your effort to do the right thing. By all means accept the new home offered, since you are sure you and your child will be made happier than where you are now. It is a terrible thing for a child to have to live where she is punished for the naughtiness of other children. You must consider the interests of your child and not give thought to what your sister says about your lack of gratitude. Surely you have done all in your power when you worked so hard after office hours.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am fourteen years old and my playmate is sixteen. She is a very nice girl, but my mother does not happen to like her because she has been going with a boy lately. Mother thinks I will get silly notions in my head. She makes me study every afternoon before I can play. This does not seem fair to me, because all the other girls can have boy friends if they want to and they don't have to do their homework until evening. Don't you think mother is unfair to me?

BETTY JANE.

No, I do not think your mother is unfair to you. It is a fine thing that she makes you study in the afternoon. At night you are tired and need rest and sleep. Try to think of yourself five years from now and you will realize that you cannot be too well informed to be interesting and have appreciation in life.

You are too young to have boy friends, and I should say that your girl friend is too. I do not believe, however, that you should have to give up her friendship because of it. Girls usually begin to think of boys when they are sixteen. They should not, however, take an unwholesome interest in them and neglect their studies as a result.

What is the big idea?

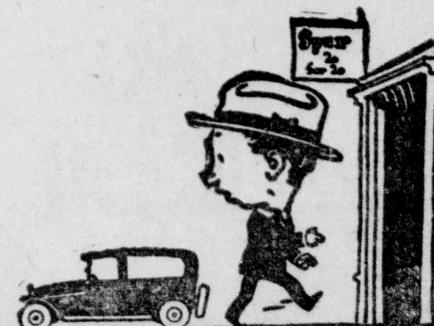

Men have all kinds of reasons for liking Spur Cigarettes. Some like them because they're mighty classy-looking—that brown-and-silver package is an eye-winner. Some like them because the paper is crimped—no paste to taste. Some like them because they're a full-packed cigarette—nothing "skinny" about them. Some like Spurs because they're twenty for twenty cents—the rock bottom price for the highest possible quality.

But what they all shout about and pass along is that they have found at last a cigarette with that good old tobacco taste that lingers in the memory.

Yes, sir, you can sure taste the good Oriental and home grown tobaccos—and that's the big idea back of Spur Cigarettes.

Now, folks, just don't wait, but try a package of Spur Cigarettes today. It's not as though you were buying a limousine. And if you do find in Spur the cigarette you have been wanting—something that just strikes the spot—it will be the best buy you've mad: since Hector was a pup.

PLAN REPUBLICAN
CELEBRATION NOV. 11
IN SPRING VALLEY

Spring Valley Township Republicans are planning a mammoth celebration for Thursday, Armistice Day, in celebration of the Republican victory at the polls last Tuesday.

A big parade with band and torch lights, and a pig roast, will feature the evening's entertainment which will wind up with addresses in the town hall. Senator-elect Frank B. Willis, and possibly, Col. Ralph D. Cole, candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, will probably be invited to speak at the village that night.

The plans are in charge of the Harding and Coolidge Club of the village of Spring Valley and committee-men and those in charge of the affair are from all over Spring Valley Township. Everyone in the county is invited to visit Spring Valley that night, and if they are Republicans participate in the parade and free feed.

The Chamber of Commerce Band of this city will lead the parade in which hundreds carrying torches are expected to be in line. When the festivities wind up with the feed on the roast ox and roast pig which will be roasted by the Spring Valley baker Harnisch, at the town hall, it is expected that the Springfield G.I.'s Club will also help entertain the visitors celebrate the election of Harding.

George Woods, Dr. Vandiman and Dr. R. V. Kenyon are on the social committee, and Samuel Knee, Pliny St. John, Wm. Crites, E. J. Kelsey, Joshua Holland and Wayne Smith form the finance committee. Elaborate arrangements to take care of hundreds of people are in progress.

EX-POSTMISTRESS IS ONLY WOMAN
MEMBER OF HOUSE

Mrs. Alice Robertson.

Mrs. Alice Robertson will be the only woman member of the house of representatives at Washington. She is a Republican and served as postmistress of Muskogee, Okla., under President Roosevelt. She defeated Congressman Hastings.

CARTRIDGE AVE LIFE

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6—Patrolman Huber probably owes his life to a defective cartridge that failed to explode when Clark Smith, 19, was surprised while robbing a grocery this morning. Smith attempted to shoot the officer who was pursuing him. Huber clubbed Smith into submission and took him to police headquarters.

By Marah Ellis Ryan whose brilliant stories of early California are considered by millions the most fascinating tales of American life. A story saturated with the daring dashing adventures of a brave American, a beautiful girl, with a setting as rare as June itself.

The Wondrous Story of Love, Chivalry and the glorious Romance of old California

IMAGINE the magnificent settings of the golden west as a background for the most romantic story of its character ever written. Picture the wild adventures of the youth of the early 50's when might ruled right, when deeds of daring were greater than the knights of old. Imagine beauty adrift in those dangerous days and then SEE with your own eyes the dramatic events that follow in this simply wonderful story, unquestionably the best Marah Ellis Ryan ever wrote. The love story you'll talk about for weeks.

Constipation

THERE IS NOTHING equal to Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. When the proper dose is taken their action is so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it is the effect of a medicine. These tablets possess tonic properties that aid in establishing a natural and regular action of the bowels. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured many cases of chronic constipation.

Scripps-Booth
THE true harmony of outline of the new Scripps-Booth Touring Car gives it a conservative individuality that you will recognize as being more carefully worked out than is usual. Its die-stamped fenders are solid and clean-curved. The bevel-edged plate-glass windows in the full-lined Pantosote top savor of costly equipment as does every other detail in the car.

The scientifically designed chassis on which this body is mounted is worthy of such coach work. Its long, wide springs and 115" wheelbase insure the maximum of riding comfort. Its six-cylinder valve-in-head motor secures the utmost of driving power from the gasoline.

Scripps-Booth is indeed moderately priced for a car of such magnificent appointments.

on your butter
without sacrificing quality!

If a new butter man were to offer you fresh creamery butter for considerably less than you've been paying, wouldn't you buy from him?

Suppose you could secure something that tastes exactly like the freshest creamery butter—a butter-spread that your family and your guests would compliment—that is as wholesome and delicious and digestible as creamery butter—and sells for much less—then wouldn't that be the same as buying creamery butter for a lower price?

You can do just this if you use Golmar. It gives you every advantage of the best creamery butter. We challenge you to tell any difference between them, no matter how you use Golmar. Nor can your family tell any difference.

Golmar is churned fresh daily—comes to you in perfect condition. It is made of the choicest cocoanut oils instead of dairy products. It is less expensive than butter because cocoanut oil can be produced more economically than dairy products. It stays fresh amply long enough for a small family to use a pound.

Get a package from your dealer today and find out for yourself that Golmar really is as good in every way as the finest creamery butter. Your money cheerfully refunded if you are not entirely satisfied. You owe it to yourself to find out.

The Famous Golmar Test
Example No. 16
Golmar on Pancakes

PLACE a pat of Golmar and one of creamery butter side by side. Spread one pancake with Golmar and another with the fresh creamery butter. Take a bite of one and then of the other. We challenge you to tell which is Golmar. Golmar is the equal of and is equalled only by fresh creamery butter.

The same coloring matter used in creamery butter is supplied with Golmar so you can color it at home and save the tax of 10 cents per pound which the Government would collect if Golmar were colored by the makers.

ANNOUNCE SPEAKER FOR C. OF C. BANQUET FRIDAY EVENING

Fredrick H. Rike, of the Rike-Kumler Company, Dayton, will be the speaker at the regular November banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to be held Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. Rike's subject will be "Community Co-operation" according to the invitations which will be issued this week to members of the organization. The speaker is connected with the largest department store in Dayton and one of that city's biggest business men. He has also been closely identified with the Chamber of Commerce of Dayton and in the van of all civic work.

The local Chamber has attempted to secure Mr. Rike for a speaking engagement several times before, but this is the first time that he has consented to be the speaker here. His address will be looked forward to with interest.

The usual banquet will be served at 6:30 by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany, and the Chamber of Commerce orchestra, which became popular as an innovation at the annual banquet last month, will furnish music at the Friday night affair.

BUSINESS MEN ARE TAKING HAND IN SALE OF 1920 SEALS

Indications that big business men are becoming impressed by the tremendous wastage of preventable disease, and are taking an active part in the fight against such waste, are shown in an announcement today by the Ohio Public Health Association of the personnel of the Ohio Christmas Seal Committee.

It was announced that Warren A. Myers, Springfield manufacturer, had accepted the active chairmanship of the committee and had enlisted as district chairman the following—all of whom are connected with large manufacturing enterprises in the state: S. O. Richards Jr., Toledo; A. L. Garford, Elyria; H. H. Timken, Canton; George E. Bayly, Lima; J. Walter Jeffrey, Columbus; Perry C. Mark, Zanesville; Gordon Rentschler, Hamilton; Richard Enderlin, Chillicothe.

These men will direct the sale of thirty million Christmas Seals and health bonds in Ohio in a campaign which opens December 1st. This is the annual sale which enables state and local voluntary health organizations to carry on the educational campaign against tuberculosis; to finance public health nursing service and do other practical health work in communities where public funds are inadequate.

CALL OFF GAME SUNDAY IN DAYTON

The scheduled game between the Dayton Triangles and the Muncie, Ind., Flyers was called off Sunday by the Triangles because of adverse weather conditions.

The game was the last chance to see the Triangles for several weeks in Dayton and now they will be out of town until Thanksgiving Day when they play the Detroit Heralds. Next Sunday they play at Rock Island Ill., and the following week they go to Akron. They will play a return

Neglect Keeps Doctors Busy

An eminent physician once said: "Were it not for people who neglect the early symptoms of disease, many doctors would have to find a new way to make a living."

Every winter doctors are busy calling on grippe and pneumonia patients because the first symptoms of colds were neglected.

Watch out for a cold this year. At the first sneeze and sniffle take Lightning Laxative Quinine Tablets. You'll stop the cold and feel like a new person in 24 hours. Never gripe or sicken. Doctors guarantee them—see a box.

Neglecting That Cold or Cough?

Why, when Dr. King's New Discovery So Promptly Checks It?

LETTING the old cough or cold drag on, or the new one develop seriously, is folly, especially when at druggists, you can get such a proved and successful remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery.

For over fifty years, a standard remedy for coughs, colds and grippe. Eases croup also. Loosens up the phlegm, quiets the croupy cough, stimulates the bowels, thus relieving the congestion. All druggists, 60 cents, $1.20 a bottle.

Wake Up Clear Headed
That "tired out feeling" mornings, is due to constipation. You can quickly and easily rid yourself of it by taking Dr. King's Pills. They act mildly, stir up the liver and bring a healthy bowel action. Same old price, 25 cents.

TESTED RECIPES

Muldoon Salad—Equal parts of grated carrots, lettuce, rice, finely chopped celery. Sprinkle over with nuts and serve with French dressing on lettuce.

Pineapple Tapioca—One can shredded pineapple. Let juice come to boil, then add half cup sugar, one tablespoon corn starch, whites of three eggs. When thick add pineapple.

Rolled Oats and Fruit Cookies—One-half cup of butter, one-half cup milk, one-half cup raisins, one-quarter cup chopped nuts, one cup rolled oats, one cup flour, one-half teaspoon soda. Mix in the usual manner. Add more flour if needed to make a firm dough. Roll into thin sheet and cut into rounds. Bake in a moderate oven. The recipe makes about thirty cookies.

Creamed Beef Honolulu—Fill baking dish one-third full of boiling water seasoned with salt and pepper. Lay on this a layer two or three slices deep of dried beef, which has been soaked a few minutes in luke warm water, season with pepper and dot with butter, then another layer of rice. Dot top with butter and fill with milk or half milk and half the water the rice was cooked in; bake till top is brown.

Pepper Salad—Slice the tops from green peppers, remove seeds and veins, and soak in boiling water fifteen minutes. Drain, chill and fill with finely cut cabbage, or celery, or both, mixed with mayonnaise.

Russian Potatoes—Wash and pare four potatoes, dice and cook slowly; when nearly done add salt, pepper and one small onion minced; cook till tender but not mushy; add one tablespoon margarine and two tablespoons (or more) of sour cream; shake gently.

Lemon-Apple Pie—Mix together two cups chopped apples, one cup sugar, one-half cup water, one-half cup rolled crackers, juice and grated rind of one lemon, one egg well beaten. Pour in pie tin lined with pastry, cover with a top crust and bake in moderate oven.

GOOD SOUPS

Bouillon—Four pounds lean beef from the middle of the round, two pounds bone, two quarts cold water, one-half cup each of carrot, turnip, onion and celery cut in dice, one tablespoon salt, four cloves.

Wipe and cut meat and bone into small pieces; add the water and heat slowly; simmer five hours over a low flame; add seasoning and vegetables and boil one hour. Boil down to three pints, strain, remove fat, and clear. Serve in cups.

Tomato Soup—Boil a soup bone until meat will drop from bone. Take out meat and bones and skin off the grease. Add one can of tomatoes. Take a small onion and stick into it seven or eight cloves; add to the soup. Season with salt and pepper. Cook one hour over a low flame, then strain and serve.

CREAMED BEEF HONOLULU—Fill baking dish one-third full of boiling water seasoned with salt and pepper. Lay on this a layer two or three slices deep of dried beef, which has been soaked a few minutes in luke warm water, season are to be held at football games.

The warning is sent out, says Mr. Cole, in order to prevent the occurrence of accidents such as those reported from other sections of the country. Under the law the department has the right to revoke the operating license of any aviator who disregards regulations.

FIRE DRIVES OUT GUESTS.

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Twenty guests were driven from the Albany Hotel, Champion and Front streets, by fire. The damage, mostly from smoke and water, may reach $20,000.

Nan Begrudges Dick's War Service Chapter 7.

I had paid the butcher, but no one else. My nerves had been at the breaking point for days, ever since Dick had talked so blithely about that $200 in the bank.

He often had told me of the money made in cotton, but he never had tried to increase his income by speculation and declared he never would.

"I have seen too many young fellows go broke. I am afraid of any kind of speculation," he told me when I urged him to do something to make more money. "We'll go slow, Nan. Save as we can and buy a good bond or something that is safe."

"It seems almost cowardly not to try to make more when we need it so badly."

Once more he reminded me of the $200 in the bank, and cautioned me not to worry—that he was the man of the house and would always take care of me.

"If you hadn't gone to that old war! If you had done as a lot of others did and stayed at home, you could have made money enough to have anything we want—a lot of them."

"You wouldn't have had me a wicher, would you, Nan?"

I flushed. I had been so proud of him when he wore his uniform. He wore it the first time I met him. But the war was over, and we were poor, well, and able to attend to business.

It may seem strange that I a country girl, should so soon have become inoculated with the money bug, as Dick called it. But when a woman loves pretty things, is fond of adorning herself and her home, and sees them all about her, although she cannot afford them it is hard for her not to be envious—not to long for the flesh pots—not to do whatever she can to get what she desires.

I used to spend hours in the stores, looking at absurdly expensive materials—things that only the very wealthy could buy—and watching the beautifully dressed women who came in carriages and motor cars to shop. This habit was very bad for me. Dick had encouraged me to "run around to the shops" when we were first married. He thought it would keep me from being lonely. Then in the evening we would walk down the avenue, and look in the windows, window shopping," I called it. I would select what I liked and Dick would pretend he was going to buy it for me. He little knew how intensely I was wishing he would, or could.

But for several weeks I had not been able to go out very much save around the neighborhood. Yet in some way I had spent every penny he gave me besides being so much in debt. My life was made miserable by my own wrong doing.

TOMORROW—A Surprise That Meant Sacrifice.

Women of Middle Age

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change in her life without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, smothering spells, fainting spells, nervous troubles and irregularities are symptoms that should have prompt attention. These two letters prove what a successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women at this time of life.

These Two Women Helped During Change of Life.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same trouble as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for it."—Mrs. SUSAN C.
